

National Homes doubles down with two new releases this summer

By NextHome Staff

June 24, 2024

With construction well underway at DUO Condos, a multi-award-winning community rising over downtown Brampton, National Homes has officially unveiled its second tower. In partnership with Brixen Developments Inc., DUO2 completes a pair of stunning towers that will redefine the Brampton skyline.

As a whole, DUO is a brilliant addition to the streets of Brampton, creating a transit-oriented community focused on bringing daily needs closer to your door. Just minutes to GO Transit and a future LRT, and steps to Sheridan College. Inspired by the 20-minute neighbourhood, residents will be able to shop, eat and play within a short walk or transit ride from home – and by extension, have great commuting potential.

Variety of housing opportunities

Inside, DUO2 was designed to provide a rich variety of housing opportunities to residents of the downtown area. By offering a range of suites from compact studios to spacious three-bedroom units, this thoughtful mix will allow residents from all walks of life to experience the dynamic energy of this urban address.

DUO Condos by National Homes and Brixen Developments Inc. Tower 2 coming soon to Brampton

Paired with its incredible array of active amenities to support a modern lifestyle, it's clear why Tower 1 of DUO Condos was a smashing success. To learn more about this coveted new release, visit duocondos.ca and register to join the Insider List. Don't wait – just do DUO.

Northshore Towns

If life by the lake is more your speed, follow your own course down to Burlington's most coveted new community, Northshore Condos. Another multi-award-winning community by National Homes, Northshore is preparing to release something entirely new – a stunning collection of townhomes to complement this boutique midrise building.

Northshore Towns offer a rare opportunity to enjoy the prestige of lowrise living with benefits of a condo community, complete with vibrant lifestyle amenities, such a gym, party room and co-work space.

With a limited collection of townhomes, including innovative bungalow towns and two-storey garden towns, Northshore's designs will offer two- and three-bedroom layouts, private outdoor spaces, and all the same upscale style as their condo counterparts.

The first release of suites at Northshore Condos was met with great success, so don't miss out on this exclusive new release of townhomes. The lake is calling you – follow it home to Burlington's North Shore. Register now to be placed on the Insider List at mynorthshore.ca.

National's new releases are sure to be a hit, so keep an eye out for more information on these two spectacular new communities.

See article here:

<https://nexthome.ca/news/national-homes-doubles-down-with-two-new-releases-this-summer/1311085/>